Michelle Little – Nice To See You

Originally from the Central West of NSW, Michelle Little has been serenading audiences for over 25 years. She has performed at numerous venues from the Sydney Opera House to The Bluebird Cafe in Nashville. Michelle now lives in Sydney and, having spent the last few years focused on her live shows, is excited to be releasing some new music.

Nice To See You is the first original release from Michelle in over a decade. It is a modern example of the western swing genre complete with fiddle from Luke Moller and pedal steel from Jy-Perry Banks. Produced by Michael Carpenter at LoveHz Studios, Michelle's lyrics relay a conversation between old friends and also serve as an invitation for listeners to reconnect with her music.
