Clayton Saunders - Life Hurts Without Her

Clayton Saunders is a singer, songwriter, musician and vocalist with almost 50 years' experience of live performances and numerous TV appearances under his belt.

Clayton has been honing his skills as a songwriter for all that time. In the 70's Clayton performed in Johnny Chester's backing band Hotspur in the 70's for five years. He also was the lead singer in Stoney Creek and received a golden guitar nomination back in 1984 for his beautiful country song Angel Eyes. Clayton also performed with the famous cabaret show band The New Echoes (formerly the blue echoes) in the first half the 90's.

Clayton's new single Life Hurts Without Her is being released on Tuesday 6th October 2020. It is a timeless Country song that will touch the hearts of country music lovers everywhere.
