Dave Cox – Five Stars

Under the southern cross we stand, brothers and sisters in this land.
We can make it peaceful and free if we want.

Dave Cox is a local songwriter who writes about Australia, its people and what makes us a great mob. Believer in the phrase “where words fail, music speaks” Dave hopes that his music encourages other veterans to pick up a guitar and express their thoughts and ideas through the power of music. Dave is proud and grateful to be known as an Australian.
