The Weeping Willows – Black Crow

Fresh from the red carpet of Tamworth's CMAA Awards, where The Weeping Willows took home the 2021 Golden Guitar for Instrumental of the Year (for previous outing 'Prelude'), partners in life, love, and song Andrew Wigglesworth and Laura Coates delve into darkness once again with brooding new single "Black Crow". Encroaching doom never sounded so sweet.

Shivering with misgiving, "Black Crow" finds its murderous protagonist inescapably fixed by the penetrating gaze of the titular bird – harbinger of his inevitable fate at the end of a rope. Bleakly arresting, it's yet another unmissable taste of The Weeping Willows' long-awaited third studio album.

Like the beady-black eye of a raven, "Black Crow" is a timely reminder of the inescapability of fate. It's yet another dramatic masterwork in The Weeping Willows' incomparable songbook.
