Cathy Dobson – Love Ain't Bulletproof

Cathy Dobson's "Love ain't bulletproof" is the fourth release from the EP "A farmer's lullaby". Nothing like a good cheating song that, of course, becomes a murder ballad. Damian Cafarella plays haunting slide guitar and Lachlan Bryan provides perfect harmonies. The EP was recorded at EOR studios in Edithvale. "Love ain't bulletproof" is in the Top 30 of the "Country" section of the ASA songwriting awards, results pending.

The song was inspired by a short film, "Gangster Dreaming", a film by Melbourne based producer and writer, Lisa Habermann- Lisa featured two of Cathy's other songs in the film.

"Love ain't bulletproof" is available on all digital streaming outlets or contact Cathy via FB for a hard copy of "A farmer's Lullaby".
