Vanessa Delaine – Let Me Be There

‘Let Me Be There’ is fun and catchy song written by John Roskill and made famous by Olivia Newton John in 1973.

I grew up singing ‘Let Me Be There’, ‘Banks of the Ohio’, ‘How Far is Heaven’ and ‘Coat of Many Colours’. I have a lot of wonderful memories of singing with my family and people loved to sing along to these beautiful country classics.

In 2020 I celebrated my 50th birthday with a Facebook Livestream Concert singing some of the old songs I used to sing when I was young. I received beautiful compliments and thus I decided to share this song ‘Let Me Be There’ out to the world.

Delaine recorded the vocals at her home and the song was mixed and mastered by producer Glenn Langford in Sydney during the covid lockdowns of early 2021.
Enjoy!
