Anne Fraser – The Miners Wife

The Miners Wife was written in compassion for the women who have had to rebuild their lives due to mining tragedies.

I have a deep passion for the outback and know there are hardships within the mining industry.

I visualised the pain of her knowing that he had lost his life in the tragedy and then not being able to do anything about it, except treasure the memories and hold hope for the future.

I have suffered loss myself and hold great empathy for those that go through this pain.

“She’s a lonely miners wife, there is promise in future skies.....”
