Destiny Band Oz – Show Pony

A cute country rock song written and sung by Tessa Libreri.

Most people want to dress up and look their best when they go out, right? So perhaps it's a bit fake when you don't usually look like that at home... (Like a horse - or 'pony' being beautifully turned out for a show, compared to how it looks being 'turned out' in the paddock!) The stereotypes of men and women (especially older ones!) can be a bit unfair, so even if the outside is a bit fake, what really matters is what you're like on the inside!

From Destiny Band Oz's latest album, 'Who I Might Be'. Guitar, Bass and Lap Steel by Thomas Libreri, all other instrumentation and production by Damian Cafarella of EOR Productions.

(Inspired by Tessa's husband, Thomas, who always teases her about being a 'Show Pony'!)
