Rob Breese – The Passing Of A Bushman

A career that spans nearly four decades in Country Music is something that Rob holds tight to his belt. Being in high demand at festivals across the country as both Guest Artist and Musician is also something that Rob is extremely proud of..

He has 13 independent albums to his name with the fourteenth set for release later this year.

This track, “The Passing of a Bushman” is a track that Rob is very proud of. It is in the style of a modern bush ballad and ticks all the boxes for his contribution to the Australian Country Music Industry.. It was recorded at Beaten Track Studios in Country Music Capital, Tamworth NSW, and has employed a list of the most suitable musicians available for the job.

The Passing of a Bushman will be Robs first ever nomination in the Golden Guitar Awards. With his easy listening and convincing delivery of this great song he stands tall and proud and awaits the release of his forthcoming album “A Cowboys Concerto”
