Maddie Cail – Bad Girl Gone Good

The song ‘Bad Girl Gone Good’ came to me when I was driving home one day. I had an overwhelming urge to just want to go out and let my hair down.

The song is aimed at an audience who perhaps could have been a bit of a wild child growing up but since then have been restricted by work routine, responsibilities or other commitments.

Bad Girl Gone Good delivers lyrics that take the listener to a nostalgic place by reflecting on what it used to feel like when you would go out and aims to create a sense of wanting to “let your hair down” again. It gives off a Gretchen Wilson country rock vibe and encourages the listener to really feel the lyrics.
