Katy Hurt - Sounds Good In A Bar

"Despite the excitement and glamour of heavy touring and playing bigger shows, 'Sounds Good In A Bar' sees Katy reflect on the odd jobs she's done from working in bars and cafes to pumping gas on the overnight shift. It's daydreaming during those shifts and venting frustrations to friends that led to the idea for this song.

Encapsulating a period when she struggled as a young musician, Katy says the song illustrates the sensation of acceptance, of changing the lifelong dream of selling out stadiums to simply hoping that you can entertain people each night in the local bar and make a song sound good anywhere."

Katy Hurt is one of the most prominent emerging artists from the UK country music scene. At the UK Country Music Spotlight Awards she took home the hardware for Female Artist of the Year and Best EP of the year, along with that she has been nominated four times at the British Country Music Awards.
