Becci Nethery – Feels Like Home

Feels like home is singer-songwriter Becci Nethery's latest single.

At 17 Becci moved away from her home town of Chillagoe inland FNQ (population 250) to Sydney, NSW to study Music. With this "love song" to her hometown, she aims to capture the vivid and beautiful scenes from her childhood and tell the story of how much she misses her family and the indescribable feeling of belonging that comes with going home.

Co-written with the incredible David Carter, they have shaped this song into the passionate ballad that it has become, encapsulating so much emotion and gravity into the lyrics and melody.

Becci is especially excited to release this single during these hard times as she has only been able to go home once in the past 20 months. She hopes that with this song, the people of Chillagoe are reminded how much she loves and misses them and how wonderful it will be when she can finally come home.
