Reanna Shard – Already Perfect

Realising at a young age that country music is her favourite music genre has set Queensland's Reanna Shard on a path of all things country.

Reanna who hails from the Scenic Rim area of Queensland but very well known around the Ipswich area, has already put pen to paper to write and record her first radio single, ALREADY PERFECT.

Co-writing with multi-award winner Gina Jeffreys and Max Jackson, Reanna was in good company penning her debut single.

"It's so refreshing to hear a young country singer who is the real deal! Reanna Shard is country through and through.

It's so exciting to have such a young artist who wants to be a traditional country singer!

Watch this space everyone! "Gina Jeffreys".

ALREADY PERFECT is a story of people in the world who think they are not worth it, but actually, they're ALREADY PERFECT.

Recorded and produced by Rod McCormack, Reanna is so excited to bring you all her debut single.

Listen to the lyrics, they are extremely powerful. For a young teenager to be feeling this way already, Reanna is set to bring you more of her ideas on life through her songs. For women to create their own destiny and take their power into their own hands.
