Evelyn Bury and Justin Standley – Love and Happiness For You

Living legend, and trail blazer for Australian female country artists, Evelyn Bury, has received Australian Day Honours for her service to country music, and, sadly has announced her final concert performance. This beautiful duet with Justin Standley, Love and Happiness, is also likely to be her final professional recording.

The song made the top 20 a few years ago pre-Covid, but in honour of Evelyn and the amazing contribution she has made to Australian country music, we are re-releasing this fitting song.
