Jarrad Wrigley (Feat Lily Alexander) – Rain On The Roof

“Rain On The Roof” is my story about two tortured souls, longing for each other’s love all while knowing it’s just not meant to be.

It’s a story of being within arm’s reach of your one true love, but you just can’t take that leap of faith, no matter how much your heart aches.

We all have that one somebody. Some of us get to be with them, but for the rest of us... we have the rain on the roof.

I have one of those somebody’s in my life, and for years I could never express how it made me feel. But then I wrote this song.

A song about those lonesome nights laying there, listening to the rain on the roof as the tears roll down my face.
