Sandy Louise Featuring Phill JD - A Dozen Letters

‘A Dozen Letters’ captures a sad love story of a couple separated by war as a soldier fights for his country but through the letters they write to each other they feel connected.

Relatable and fitting as we approach ANZAC Day and remember while also looking at the current world news.

Newcastle based Singer Songwriter Sandy Louise says music is what holds her heart and soul together. Her performances encompass her own individual style through acoustic Melodie’s that compliment her strong captivating vocals.

Influenced by her love of country along with an eclectic love of music. Working with producer Bill Chambers, ‘A Dozen Letters’ is her latest and 3rd single release from her upcoming album.
