Ronnie & Johnny – Not Made For The City

While on holidays at the North Coast in 2020, Johnny was working on a new riff. He played it so often that Ronnie was threatening bodily harm to him unless they turned it into a song.

It describes Johnny's life living in small country towns and spending his time off away from the town.

He keeps telling Ronnie about all the places out west he wants to revisit with her.

Johnny never lost the yearning for the peace and quiet of the bush.

They both reckon lots of people feel that way and are really not made for the city.
