Peter Smokie Dawson – Moving On

A co-write by Peter Smokie Dawson and Allan Caswell, 'Moving On' tells the story of love lost and mustering the strength to pick up and keep moving forward.

Moving on strikes a chord with so many people of all ages whilst showing positivity amidst sadness and trying times.

"I drew inspiration from my personal experiences in life" says Peter.

Moving on was written at the Dag sheep station in Nundle and recorded in the Diamond Valley studio by Parris Macleod.
