Jodi Vaughan & Brendan Dugan – I'll Be There For You

Jodi Vaughan was born in Balmain NSW and raised in Shell Harbour.

Upon travelling to New Zealand, at 21 years of age, she was discovered as an artist and became a household name on 'That's Country', a weekly show on New Zealand Television in the early 80s which ran for 8 years.

Jodi released both Gold & Platinum status albums including a duet album 'Fairweather Friends' with Brendan Dugan who also featured on the weekly TV show.

'Fairweather Friends' was their most successful recorded project and 2022 marks 40 years since its release.

2022 also marked the release of Jodi's 10th Studio album 'For the Love of Country' packed full of original works from Jodi with her traditional country upbeat flavour.

So far it has taken both the #1 position on the Official NZ Album Charts and #1 on the IMNZ Chart.

The 2nd single 'I'll Be There For You' is the first duet from Jodi Vaughan and Brendan Dugan in 40 years.
