

Lyrics – The Woman Behind The Man Behind The Wheel
Col Thomson & © Charlie Rundell

Rolling down the highway the k's go clicking by
I have time to think life over and all those family ties
Then my mind goes into neutral about the woman that waits at home
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She knows just how I feel
She's a mother she's a wife she's the idol of my life
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
Only two more days to go and I'll turn this rig around
Then I'll be loaded and I'll be homeward bound
Can't wait to see the kids they'll be playing in the street
And their mother on the veranda just to make the scene complete
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She knows just how I feel
She's a mother she's a wife she's the idol of my life
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
Rolling down the highway the k's go clicking by
I have time to think life over and all those family ties
Then my mind goes into neutral about the woman that waits at home
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She knows just how I feel
She's a mother she's a wife she's the idol of my life
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She knows just how I feel
She's a mother she's a wife she's the idol of my life
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
She's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
Oh yeh, she's the woman behind the man behind the wheel
