Aimee Hannan – Where I Belong

I have always known who I am and where I belong but with my family being a part of the stolen generation, it left a few holes in our hearts until we finally were connected with our Mob in and around Tamworth. Finally it all made sense why it was so comforting to be there... it was home.

Knowing that my family past and present are watching over me is the best feeling so I asked to Gina Jeffreys & Max Jackson to help me pen these feelings into a song so I could share it with you all.

Recorded at Tracking Dog Studio with Rod Motbey, Where I Belong is the next story to come from my forth coming Album to be released later this year.
