Andy Penkow – Fireflies

“Fireflies” is the third single to hit radio from Andy Penkow’s brand new album, “Love, Lies & Dirty Dishes”.

After an unstoppable run of number 1 hit songs including “Before I Go”, “1993” and “Fallen Snow”, Andy has proven that his unique style and love for country music has helped him stamp his mark on the industry.

“Fireflies” was written with Christine M Kerr after hitting it off at a songwriters retreat.

“Fireflies is a song written about the end of a relationship, reflecting on what you did wrong and how sometimes sorry isn’t enough. For me, it’s wishing that you could change the bad stuff you did and hoping that something magically could take you back and fix the relationship that you screwed up”.
